

DEPARTMENT CHAIRPERSONS

It is the policy of Frostburg State University to have department chairpersons who are faculty members with given administrative responsibilities:

* Supervising departmental staff, facilities, and resources.

* Facilitating university decision making, especially with regard to the nature and structure of departmental governance.

* Encouraging faculty, program, and resource development.

* Officially representing, or speaking for, the department on and off campus.

Detailed responsibilities and procedures for selection of chairpersons can be found in the Faculty Handbook.

(Internal)