

PN 2.017

(Revised)

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Academic dishonesty in any form is viewed as one of the most serious offenses against the good order of the educational community. Any individual or group of students found cheating or plagiarizing is subject to university disciplinary procedures in addition to any action taken by the faculty member of the course involved.

(See Student Code of Conduct)

Ref. BOR III - 1.00