

FSU PROCEDURE FOR EMERITI STAFF

Emeritus status for staff may be conferred by Frostburg State University on the basis of exemplary and lengthy service to the University community. Staff Emeritus, a title of distinction, is conferred by the President upon staff whose personal and professional contributions to the University community have been of the highest merit.

Eligibility considerations for Emeritus status include:

- At least 10 years of distinguished full-time Frostburg State University employment, at the level below Director,
- Has a record of noteworthy contributions throughout his or her FSU career, and
- Has retired from FSU in good standing.

For consideration, submit the following information for approval of the President:

- At least one recommendation made by an employee at the supervisor-level or above; and
- A recommendation by the Staff Senate.

Emeriti staff are listed under Emeriti - Staff in the University catalog and enjoy use of University facilities, privileges and services as available to the University community.

When merited, the President may make exceptions to this policy.

(Internal)

Approved by the Executive Committee October 2019