

PN 4.020

JUDICIAL SYSTEM

The University Judicial System, composed of students, faculty, and administrators, considers and acts upon violations of the standards of student conduct. Each member of the university community is expected to adhere to and respect university regulations and the laws of the larger society. The University has an obligation to identify and to confront behavior which is at variance with accepted standards. (See Pathfinder for full details on the Judicial System and the College Standards of Personal and Group Conduct.)

Ref. BOR V - 1.00