

LOGO

The University Logo is used on all university material excluding formal presentations such as diplomas and certificates on which the official university seal is used.

It is the university policy for all offices and departments to use the approved design, colors, and paper for letterhead and envelopes. Letterhead will not include individual names, but rather, offices.

(Internal)